INFORMATION

The United States Attorney Charges:

Count One

Conspiracy to Commit Wire Fraud
(Violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1349 (18 U.S.C. § 1343))

At all times material to this information:

1. Starting in or about May 2011, and continuing until at least March 2014, the exact dates being unknown to the U.S. Attorney, in the Northern District of Texas, and elsewhere, the defendant Carl Keith Battie, a.k.a. Carl Hampton, did unlawfully and knowingly combine, conspire, confederate, and agree with others, both known and unknown to the U.S. Attorney, including Person A, an individual known to the U.S. Attorney, to commit certain offenses against the United States, to wit, wire fraud, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1343.

2. The objective of the conspiracy was for Battie and Person A, among others, to unlawfully enrich themselves by defrauding investors in connection with the fraudulent sale and offer to sale of investments in real estate.

3. In furtherance of the scheme and artifice to defraud:

a. Battie operated several business entities out of offices in Dallas, Texas, within the Northern District of Texas, including Lien Exchange TX, LLC, Lien Exchange, Inc., Family First NV, LLC, Loving Life Studios, LLC, WCM Direct, Inc., and “Entrust.”

b. Battie located and purchased distressed and dilapidated real estate primarily in the St. Louis, Missouri, area. Battie, using the various business entities along with other coconspirators, flipped the properties one or more times over the course of several months or years in order to create the appearance of a market and inflate the appraised value of the property.

c. Battie directed his associates to falsify signatures and notaries on property records that were later filed with the St. Louis County Clerk’s office and the City of St. Louis Recorder of Deeds.

d. Person A, with Battie’s knowledge and at his direction, pitched actual and potential investors the opportunity to invest in mortgage notes underlying the distressed and dilapidated real estate. Typically, Person A pitched senior citizens at investment seminars at high-end restaurants.

e. Person A, with Battie’s knowledge and at his direction, made numerous factual and material misrepresentations about the value of the properties underlying the mortgage notes and the solvency of the company as well as omissions about the condition of the properties.

f. Battie caused Person A to send electronic communications via interstate wire transfer, that is, the transfer of Battie’s cut of investor proceeds from the scheme and artifice to defraud.

All in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1349 (18 U.S.C. § 1343).
